

TITLE							No.	Coverage
1066-1272 Eastern Sussex under the Norman and Angevin kings of England							A4.4	Local influences on and visits to eastern Sussex by kings between 1066 and 1272
1493 Passport setting out the Liberties of Battle Abbey and Inhabitants of Battle							A3.4	Details of a parchment dated 1493 found in BDHS archives concerning the rights of citizens of Battle
410-900: Some early Kings, but who were the Hastingas?							A4.1	Anglo-Saxon kings of Sussex, Wessex and England to 900 with a discussion about the Hastingas area
A short History of Battle Baptists from 1793							F3.3	The founding of a Baptist church in Battle and its history
A Short History of the Church of Saint Mary the Virgin							F2.1	The founding of St. Marys church in Battle and its history
A Whatlington Family in 1945							J4.5	A memory of events in Whatlington during the last year of WWII and VE day celebrations
Abbots of Battle 1070-1538							A3.1	From the first to the last abbot of Battle, with some histories of specific abbots
Adean Family							S1.2	Private secretaries to kings and a queen the family lived at Sedlescombe
Adherents from the Rape of Hastings and Pevensey Lowey of the Jack Cade Rebellion of 1450 who were pardoned							X2.11	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Appendixes for Paper R4.2C							R4.2d	Family names from the Companion Rolls Worcester List added
Around Battle, but mainly Hastings from 900-1450							R5.2	The evolution of the Battle-Hastings area between 900 and 1450
Ashburnham							O1.1	Some history of Ashburnham Place and the Earls of Ashburnham
Banks of Battle, to 2018							C8.1	No mainstream bank now exists in Battle. This paper looks at local banking history
Barbara Bodichon - Women's Rights1							H4.1	Barbara Bodichon was a pioneer of women's rights and lived locally
Battle Almonry							O3.1	The history of the 'Battle Almonry' which was never an almonry
Battle and William Cobbett							H3.1	How the radical speaker Cobbett made his voice well known in Battle
Battle at War (covers post 1066 period, but mainly post 1538)							J1.1	An overview of how Battle reacted militarily to wars down the ages
Battle History Walk							R3.1	A specially devised walk around historic Battle, created by the Research Group of BDHS
Battle in the English Civil War and Interregnum							J1.2	A bit of a backwater during the Civil War but still with some colourful characters
Battle Non Conformity 1696-1793							F3.1	An in depth look at the rise of many strands of non-conformity in Battle
Battle Union Workhouse							D4.1	The history of the Battle Union Workhouse 1840-1930
Battle's Catholic Church of Our Lady Immaculate and St Michael							F4.1	A factual look at Catholicism's return to Battle
Battle's Clock and Watchmakers							C9.1	There were many clock and watchmakers in Battle, this is their history
Beauport							O1.2	The history of Beauport Place, first developed by James Murray of Quebec fame
Bodiam Castle and Manor							O3.2	Bodiam manor and castle from before 1066 until its gift to the National Trust in 1925
Brede Place, its History and Families							O1.4	An old manor house, Brede Place and its families has an interesting history from the 1300s onwards
Brightling and the Fullers							O1.14	The history of Brightling Park with some discussion of Jack Fuller and the Fuller family
Brownes, Montagues and Recusancy – 1538-1629							F4.3	A Catholic family, owners of Battle Abbey, and how they survived the Reformation and reign of Elizabeth I
Canadia							R3.4	Description of an attempt to recruit local farmers workers for Canad, leaving a residual name
Carters and Lamberts of Telham Court							O1.5	An account of a large country house and its families
Christianity and 1066							F1.1	How Christianity may or may not have influenced the outcome of 1066
Church of the Ascension, Telham							F2.2	A 'chapel of ease' funded by Dean Crake of St Marys to try to confound the rise of non-conformity
Church Taxation of Pope Nicholas IV 1288							X2.3	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Clare Sheridan							L3.1	A synopsis of the life of Chare Sheridan, Sculptress
Cnut: Stability in England and evolving Norman Connections							X1.1	A look at the relative stability of Cnut's reign and some local influences
Col. Charles H Lemmon, DSO - Author and Past President 1963-1973 of BDHS							R1.1	Charles Lemmon wrote extensively about the Battle of Hastings and other military events
Congregationalists at Battle and Robertsbridge							F3.6	The Congregationalists of Battle and Robertsbridge had completely different origins

Cresy Report									E2.1	Sewerage drainage water supply and sanitary condions in Battle in 1850
Cripps Corner Tank Traps									J4.4	Stop lines and dragons teeth to slow up potential tank invasions
Critique and Comparison of 'Companion Rolls of the Conquest', some known as 'Battle Abbey Rolls'									R4.2a	Analysis of the various 'Companions of William' Rolls and a discussion of their Genealogcal value
Crowhurst Park and the Papillon Family									O1.11	A history of Crowhurst Park with some insights into one of its families
D K Broster, Novelist									M1.2	All about this popular historical novelist who lived in Catsfield parish
Dannreuther family									S1.4	History of a talented family with Battle connections
Data underlying the 'Companion Rolls of the Conquest' paper R4.2a									R4.2b	Analysis of data from the various 'Companions of William' Rolls
Deans of Battle 1588-1660 part 1									F2.3b	Deans of Battle at a time of religious termoil
Deans of Battle 1588-1661 part 2									F2.3a	Deans of Battle at a time of religious termoil
Did William the Conqueror ever revisit Battle or eastern Sussex?									A4.3	An interesting look at the travels of King William I after 1066 and until his death
Don Miguel, sometime King of Portugal									X1.3	Don Miguel was a controversial king who came to live at Battle for a time after his deposition
Duke and Duchess of Cleveland									O2.1	Owners of the Battle Abbey estate for some 45 years, between Webster ownerships
Early Eastern Sussex to 410									R5.1	An overview of the very early history of Eastern Sussex
Early Religious Instututions of eastern Sussex									A3.3	A simple listing of early priories, hospitals, colleges and abbeys in eastern Sussex
Eastern Sussex 1327-1461, from Edward III to Henry VI's deposition									A4.6	Local influences on and visits to eastern Sussex by kings between 1327 and 1461
Eastern Sussex from 900 to the death of Edward the Confessor in 1066									A4.2	Some history of eastern Sussex between 900 and 1066
Edmund Blunden, Frank Hoad and Frank Worley									J3.1	Hoad's death on the Somme in 1916 and his comrade Worley, recorded by the poet Blunden
Edmund Langdon and his World - General Practitioner in Astronomie and Physicke									K3.1	All about an astrologer who published a book of physik charts from Battle
Edward the Confessor, his relationships with the Godwins and his search for an Heir									X1.2	Last of a blood line of English kings seeks an heir but has problems with the Godwin family
Eliza Acton , poet and cookery book writer whose recipes may have been stolen by Mrs Beeton									M1.1	The first writer to address the culinary needs of middle class families, born at Battle
Employment in Battle 1841-1911: A Preliminary Assement									R1.2	A close look at the occupations of people in Battle between 1841 and 1911
Florence Aylward, composer of popular songs									N2.2	Brede-born composer very popular at the turn of the 19-20th centuries
Former breweries of Battle									C2.1	A discussion of the former breweries of Battle
Frank Chacksfield, light orchestral musician									N2.1	Frank was a Battle boy who became a popular light orchestral musician on the BBC
Frederick Thatcher									L2.2	Mini-biography of the architect of the Battle Poor Union house
Grace family of Battle Abbey 1902-1916									O2.4	The American family which lived at Battle Abbey
Great Sanders									O1.8	Large old house at Sedlescombe
Great Wigsell									O1.9	A history of the house and families
Gregory Martin, Scholar, Bible translator and Author of Religious tracts									M1.8	A great Catholic scholar and bible translator with local roots
Gunpowder at Battle, Sedlescombe and Brede									C7.1	History of gunpowder making in the Battle district
Guy Hayer - prominent alcohol abolitionist									H4.2	Born at Battle, a long-time campaigner
Gypsum									C6.1	About the discovery and mining of Gypsum at Mountfield and Brightling
Harry H Corbett									N3.1	Harold' in the comedic 'Steptoe and Sons', Harry was a fine serious actor
Henry Vassall Webster of the Abbey family									O2.2	Unsung hero of Byron's poem 'The eve of Waterloo'
Hesketh Pearson, author									M1.10	Valued writer and biographer
How did Kane Hythe Road get its name?									B1.2	This oddly named road links Battle and Netherfield, but how did it get its name?
How, when and where – William's landing in 1066									A2.4	Analysis of 1066 landing places using Channel sailing conditions and historic geography
Inns of Battle, Telham and Netherfield									P2.1	A tour of past and present inns of Battle, Telham and Netherfield

Isaac Ingall - a very old man								O2.3	Ingall was interesting for being very old. His origins are a mystery but have been analysed
John Thomas Matthewson - Abolition of flogging in the Army and Navy								H4.3	A Battle born soldier is influential in getting flogging abolished after observing a post-flogging death
Kings Edward I and Edward II, Battle and eastern Sussex 1272-1327								A4.5	Local influences on and visits to eastern Sussex by kings between 1272 and 1327
Launcelot 'Capability' Brown and his work around Battle								L2.1	Capability Brown: work at Ashburnham, but his influences elsewhere in the district were minimal
Lay Subsidy Roll for the Rape of Hastings 1296								X2.4	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Lay Subsidy Roll for the Rape of Hastings 1327								X2.5	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Lay Subsidy Roll for the Rape of Hastings 1332								X2.6	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Lay Subsidy Rolls for the Rape of Hastings 1524-5 (courtesy of Sussex Record Society)								X2.13	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
List of Major Tenants in the Rape of Hastings 1475								X2.12	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Lists of eastern Sussex MPs 1334-1538								H1.2	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Malcolm Muggeridge, journalist, author, broadcaster and campaigner								M1.9	Long-time resident of Whatlington, Battle and Robertsbridge
Markets and Bull-Baiting in Battle								R3.3	A brief history of the various markets held in Battle and of bull-baiting
Marriott Edgar, film and comedy scriptwriter								M1.5	Supplied humorous verse to Stanley Holloway and wrote for films
Members of Parliament who have covered Battle and District								H1.1	An encyclopaedic listing of local MPs going back to the earliest parliament
Methodism in eastern Sussex 1756-2017								F3.2	Methodism came to eastern Sussex by two very different and interesting routes
Military deaths from the Battle district 1939-45								J4.2	An in depth study of those from the district who lost their lives in the armed services during WW2
Muster Roll of the Rape of Hastings 1339								X2.9	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Muster Rolle of the Rape of Hastings 1446								X2.10	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Names from the Rentals of Battle Abbey								X2.1	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Normanhurst and the Brasseys								O1.3	Normanhurst Court and its very wealthy creators/residents
Not just Battle Abbey – Other religious houses in eastern Sussex to 1538								A3.5	Role of religious houses except Battle abbey in east Sussex
Oaklands and the Combe Family								O1.10	Oaklands, which became home to the Pestalozzi Village
Patience Strong, poet and author								M1.12	Supplier of popular verse to newspapers
Physicians of Battle to 1945								D1.1	Who practised medicine Battle town before 1945?
Princesse de Lamballe								X1.4	Woman who met a grisly death in revolutionary Paris, and a Catsfield legend - or myth?
Prisons in Battle								E3.1	An account mainly of the house of correction in Lower Lake
Railways and the Battle district								B3.1	An overview of the coming of the railway to Battle
Rameslie before 1066 – a Norman key to the kingdom of England?								A2.1	How Rameslie (a large manor between Rye and Hastings) came to be in the hands of Fecamp abbey
Rapes of Sussex, Hundreds of Hastings Rape and the People of the Rape of Hastings to 1538								A2.5	An indepth look at how the Rapes of Sussex evolved with even more detail of the Rape of Hastings
Reginald Pound, journalist and biographer								M1.11	Well-known journalist from Whatlington
Roads in the Battle District: Pt 1. An Introduction Pt. 2 Turnpikes								B1.3	Roads around Battle from Roman days until the present
Rose Green								O1.6	Now-demolished large house on Battle Hill
Seals of the Counts of Eu and the Collegiate Church of St Mary in the Castle, Hastings								X2.2	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Secret Defenders of Bodiam and the Sussex Coast								J4.3	Some details of the secret defences of the area during WWII
Sheila Kaye-Smith, author								M1.7	Sheila Kaye-Smith's father was a local GP and she wrote novels based around eastern Sussex
Sir Francis Ronalds - inventor of the electric telegraph and other devices								K2.1	Detailed account of the life and work of a remarkable inventor who lived in Battle
Six artists of the Battle district (updated)								L1.1	Artists from Battle and District from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries
Socknersh Manor								O1.13	A listed manor dating from 1620 in the parish of Brightling

Solicitors of Battle									G4.1	A look at the names and numbers of solicitors who have practiced in Battle since the 18th century
Some Books and Links for the Norman Invasion and the Battle of Hastings									R4.1	A list of books related to '1066'
Sons of Sussex and Wessex: Harold Godwinson and the Godwins 1001-1094									A2.2	An overview of the history of the Godwin family and Harold Godwinson
St Marys Croft									O3.5	History of the area now including St Marys Villas and once glebe land, off Battle Hill
Stephen Crane, novelist, short story writer, journalist and poet									M1.3	The radical American author and poet lived for a short time at Brede Place; this is his mini-history
Subsidy Roll for the Rape of Hastings 1411									X2.7	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Surrender of Battle Abbey									A3.6	Transcriptions of letters and documents relating to the dissolution of Battle Abbey
Sussex Men at Agincourt 1415									X2.8	An appendix with information from the book 'Conquest to Dissolution 1067-1538'
Sword of Battle Abbey									R2.3	About the sword of Battle Abbey commissioned by Abbot Thomas Ludlowe
The changing British interpretations of the effects of the Norman Conquest since 1066									X1.5	A discussion document charting how the Norman Conquest has been viewed in Britain from 1066 to 2018
The Companion Roll of William of Worcester									R4.2c	A comparison of the Roll of William of Worcester with other Companion Rolls of the Conquest
The Hon. James Murray									J2.1	A history of a soldier of Scots origin, retired to Battle but famous for his role in the capture of Quebec
The London Road									B1.1	The history of the Battle to John's Cross road
Thomas Pilcher, Battle born martyr									F4.2	Sad story of a young Catholic from Battle who was brutally martyred in Dorset
Ticehurst family									S1.1	A remarkable local family, mainly nineteenth century
Timeline of dates of interest to Battle and eastern Sussex to 1538									A1.1	Key dates for Battle and eastern Sussex until the Reformation
Tom Vidler									J3.2	Relics of a man wounded in the First World War
Two Years in the Life of Philip Papillon									O1.7	Wheeler-dealing by the family later at Crowhurst Park. From a lucky finding of a book about to be burnt
Universalists, then Unitarians of Battle 1793-1898 and the fate of their chapel									F3.4	Universalists and Unitarians in Battle
Vicarys and the Seymour family									S1.3	The family that ran the old coach works and garage in Battle
Violet Fane: poet, author and translator									M1.6	Once controversial author from Beauport
Wars of the Roses backwater to the Dissolution of eastern Sussex's Abbeys 1461-1538									A4.7	The local influences of kings in the run up to the Reformation 1461-1538
Warwick Deeping, Novelist									M1.4	Prolific writer of the early twentieth century
Where did the monks of Marmoutier first try to build Battle Abbey?									A3.2	The monks of Marmoutier tried building Battle Abbey on a site not chosen by William.
William Markwick: ornithologist, marine biologist, botanist and phenologist 1739-1813									K1.1	Markwick was a natural scientist who lived at Catsfield at the time of Gilbert White of Selborne
William the Bastard in Normandy c.1028 – 28 September 1066 and some English connections									A2.3	Some background to William the Conqueror's life in Normandy before 1066
William Vidler - a peculiar clergyman									F3.5	The story of the son of a Battle Abbey mason who became a charismatic Non-Conformist minister		