

Brigadier HCG Willing CBE

Hugh Willing was a professional soldier for 36 years before retiring to his wife's family home in Staplecross in 2007. He served with the Royal Green Jackets and 2nd KEO Gurkha Rifles in many parts of the world and was an Instructor at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and at the Army Staff College Camberley.

He was born in Kenya and has travelled widely in Europe, the Mediterranean, Africa, Arabia and the Far East, both in a military and private capacity. He now cruises the world on small cruise ships as a lecturer in British Military and Colonial History.
